CHAPTER 11. MOTELS, BOARDING HOUSES, RESTAURANTS

ARTICLE I. IN GENERAL

11.101. UNLAWFUL TO DEFRAUD.

It shall be unlawful for any person to order and receive or cause to be furnished accomodation or food at any motel, boarding house or any place where food is served for profit, with intent to defraud the proprietor thereof.

It shall be unlawful for any person to obtain credit at any motel, boarding house or any place where food is served for profit, by false pretense or any fraudulent device or, after obtaining food, accomodation or credit therefrom, to surreptitiously remove himself or his baggage therefrom.

(Editor's Note. The State of South Carolina has preempted municipalities in laws governing motels, hotels, boarding houses, etc. Section 11.101 has been included primarily to protect these establishments.)
